EDITOR'S LETTER

We are please to announce that the master index of all the parish register entries that have been published so far in REVISTA is now available for fast research of names.

The parishes of the provinces of Camagüey, Matanzas and Oriente are all finished. The other provinces have not been published completely yet, so the index only has the published entries.

We are offering these indexes to those who would like to purchase them. Please see the enclosed order form.

We are still working on the master index of the information sent in by the members. This will be complete soon, and will put in our finger pits additional information gathered by the members of the society, so we can more easily help each other.

If you are a member of the society and have not sent in your genealogical information to be part of the master index, and would like to do so now, please send it in as soon as possible.

We also would like to remind the members that they are welcomed to write articles about family history and local Cuban history to be published in REVISTA. This is a good way of expanding the source of family history to those whose lives were busy in honest hard working chores, and rearing a law abiding family, which is the very foundation of liberty.

MACEDO

Translated by
Jorge A. Flores

Extracted from
Enciclopedia de Apellidos Españoles
by Alberto Garcia Carraffa

A noble family originally from Portugal. This ancestral lineage was located in Macedo de los Caballeros, in the district of Braganza Tras Os Montes, from where they took their name.

The genealogists have mentioned as one of the first known member of this lineage, Rui Martins de Macedo, Lord of Sanceris, who lived in the times of King don Dionis. Gonzalo Rodriguez de Macedo, his son, succeeded him and possessed said Lordship, and was also Governor of de Feira Castle, he was succeeded by Martín Gonzalves de Macedo, who in the battle of Aljubarrota saved King Juan I, killing his adversary Alvar Gonzalez de Sandoval, caballero from Castille, who had taken possession of a club, and was beating the King with it. As a reward for saving the King's life, he received the honor of governing the Castle of Outeiro, and also the rights of governing the villages of Melgazo and Pindella and the royal right of Braganza.

In the Libro de Armería de Portugal, translated by Alfonso de Guerra y Sandoval, it is mentioned that the Macedos had a manor house between Duero and Miño, and Miguel de Salazar confirmed that two other manor houses existed two leagues from de Rivadeo (Lugo).

In Galicia was the so called Tower of Cedo-Feita, and according to other authors, another Macedo family descended from that place.

The Count Lemus, in his Nobiliario, folio 59, Libro Antigo de Linajes de Galicia, pliegos 12 and 22, mention other towns in Portugal where the family is very well known. In Santaren, Juana de Macedo, married to Enrique de Noroña, having many offspring from which originated a great noble family. Juan de Macedo was Mayor of Otero and Bienpuexta and Captain General in the frontier between Castille and Portugal. He was assigned by King Alonso V of Portugal to assume the rights of all these kingdoms for Princess Juana, his niece.

Juan de Macedo had a daughter, Juana de Macedo, who married Lope de Marín, and they were the parents of Isabel de Marín y Macedo. She married Nuño Alvarez de Pereira, from Portugal under Felipe II.

Melchor de Castro Macedo, was Secretary of the King of Spain, Felipe IV. Catalina Macedo married the Secretary Vasconcellos, and was the mother of Antonia Melo, Countess of Hervías.

Pedro Macedo was Grandmaster of the Navy, and Governor of Chiquito, in Peru. He married María Antonia Suárez, daughter of Diego Suárez, Secretary to Felipe II.

Francisco Macedo was a very honorable Knight at the time of King Juan III of Portugal, and Lord of the Manor House of Dos Fornos, near Alenguer. He had the following offsprings: Sebastián, Francisco and Jerónimo Macedo, and one daughter married to Juan Borges. Sebastián Macedo was a keeper of Infante Cardenal, and was married to Elena Jorge, from a very noble family in Evora. They had the following offspring: Jorge, Sebastián, Manuel, Bartolomé, Francisco and Briolanda de Macedo, who was married to Antonio Gómez Carvallo. Of which:

Jorge de Macedo possessed an encomienda in Masaga, and went to the Indies as Captain of a ship. He died while serving his Majesty.

Sebastián Macedo inherited the lands of his father and was the overseer of the house of the Infante Cardenal Enrique. He married one of the daughters of Bachiller Barreto, Comptroller of Jorge de Silva. From this marriage they had eleven children, and after his first wife passed away, he remarried to Guiomar de Saa, from which they had only one daughter, Sebastiana de Macedo, who married Alfonso Vasconcellos.

Manuel Macedo received an encomienda in Tangier, and died without having a family.

Bartolomé de Macedo was a priest in Evora and he played an important role for the benefit of Santa Monica, in that city.

Francisco de Macedo was the Lord of the Manor house of Dos Fornos, and brother of Sebastian de Macedo, overseer of the Infante Cardenal. He lived in Azambuja, and married the sister of Juan Manuel Pina. They were the parents of Inés de Macedo, who was the wife of Pedro Gomá de Pina, in her first marriage, and in her second marriage, she was the wife of Nuñez Barreto, de Oporto.

Juan de Macedo, son of Francisco de Macedo, Knight Commander in Evora.

Cuban Lineage

Marquis of Madero de la Cruz, Count of Cardiff

I.—Gaspar de Macedo, Portuguese and nobleman, married Inés María Guedes Feijóo, also Portuguese, and they had the following offspring:

II.—Antonio de Macedo Guedes Feijóo, from Coimbra (Portugal), who went to reside in the city of San Pablo, Brazil for three years, then went to the city of Bayamo (founded by the adelantado Diego Velázquez de Cuéllar, in 1512) in the Island of Cuba. In 1784, he married in the same city on April 1, 1788 to Francisca Isabel de la Merced Infante de Villalobos, descendant of the Captain of War and Governor of Santiago de Cuba, Juan de Villalobos; she was the daughter of Joaquín Infante y Fonseca, and Luisa de Villalobos y Ferrol, granddaughter (paternal branch) of Félix Infante y Miranda, and Elvira Fonseca y Estrada, and granddaughter (maternal branch) of Lorenzo de Villalobos y Vázquez, and Magdalena Ferrol y Tamayo, who were all from Bayamo. Francisca Isabel Infante was baptized May 14, 1763, in the parish of San Salvador of Bayamo. Antonio Macedo y Guedes Feijóo, died of wounds inflicted by Pedro Cintra y Collazo during a duel. He owned a residence near the Parroquia Mayor, or parish of las Mercedes, and there he was a medical doctor. His son was:

III.—Pedro Manuel Antonio de Macedo e Infante, was born in Bayamo on January 10, 1792, and was baptized two days later in the parish of San Salvador, becoming an orphan at a very early age. He was a graduate of Pharmacy of the Universidad Real Pontifica of San Jeronimo, of La Habana, and also received a degree in Civil Law in 1815. He lived in the town where he was born, and was in charge for many years of the Hospital and Pharmacy administration. He married first to Luisa de Osorio, and the second time to María de la Encarnación Elvira Chamorro Ortiz, in the parish of San Salvador of Bayamo, on October 12, 1832. His second spouse was born in the same town, on September 8, 1817, and was baptized in the same parish two days later. She died in La Habana and she left her last will and testament with Andrés García the 8th of August, 1913. Pedro Manuel Antonio de Macedo e Infante, died in Consolación del Sur, in the province of Pinar del Río, on September 17, 1873. His last will was taken by Lieutenant Tomás Abascal Arredondo, of that town on May 9, 1817 and it is written in the books of Mateo J. Quintero, notary public. With his first spouse, Luisa de Osorio, he had the following offspring:

1.-Francisco de Macedo y Osorio, who was born and baptized in Bayamo. He started to study in Bayamo with the Dominican Friars, and then later went to Spain, graduating in Legislation and Jurisprudence from the universities of Valencia, Barcelona and Madrid. He returned to Bayamo and held the position of Mayor and Regidor of the city. He took a very important role in the campaign for the independence of Cuba, and was the Secretary of State during the government of Carlos Manuel de Cespedes. The municipality of Bayamo gave his name to one of the city's parks, and honored him with his statue. He married Concepción Remón e Infante, born in Bayamo, and they were the parents of:

V.-Concepción Francisca de la Encarnación de Macedo y Blanca Chamorro y Chamorro, Marchioness of Madero de la Cruz and Countess de Cardiff, who was born in Puerto Padre, on March 9, 1880, and was baptized, on June 28 of the same year, in the parish of San Jerónimo de Victoria de las Tunas. She was a Lady of the Grand Cross in the Order of Honor and Merit of the Republic of Cuba, and awarded with the medal of the "Emigrados". She was married in the North District of La Habana, before a municipal judge, on December 10, 1918, and in the parish of La Caridad on the 14th following, to Eugenio Sánchez de Fuentes y Peláez de Cardiff, from San Juan de Puerto Rico, Cuban citizen, attorney, and Examiner of the Real State Office for the city of Santiago de Cuba. He was awarded by Benedicto XV of Rome, on November 11 of 1920, with the title of Count of Cardiff, of which his ancestors were legitimate descendant, and participants in the Great Revolution for King Carlos I. Also Pío XI awarded him with the title of Marquis de Madero de la Cruz, along with his first son of his second wife, Luis Eugenio Sánchez de Fuentes y de Macedo, and all first male descendants. From the marriage of Concepción with the Count of Cardiff, the following offsprings were born:

1-Luis Eugenio Sánchez de Fuentes y de Macedo, born in La Habana on October 22, 1919, and was baptized in the parish of Santo Angel Custodio, on November 23, 1919. He was the first born to be eligible successor to the title of Marquis de Madero de la Cruz.

2-Víctor Eugenio Sánchez de Fuentes y de Macedo, born in La Habana (Vedado) on January 28, 1922, and was baptized in his paternal house on February 6, by the priest of the parish of Santo Angel Custodio.

(1) The Board of Medicine, Surgery and Pharmacists of Santo Domingo awarded him, by a decree of His Majesty, the King of Spain, on December 30, 1862, the title of First Class Assistant of the Military Department of Sanitation functioning in Santo Domingo. He was assigned to the Hospitals in Santiago de los Caballeros. Previously, he had entered the Army as Technical Assistant. He took part in the two revolutions that took place in this Island, and was badly wounded in his neck when trying to defend the bridge of San Luis of this city. He was considered dead, but the fast action taken by the Battalion's doctor of removing the projectile from his neck saved his life. Because of his wound, he was highly decorated with the medal of Sufrimientos por la Patria, and also with the Red Cross of Military Merit. When General Buceta retired from his post in La Plaza, he ordered him to remain and assist in taking care of all the wounded men. He lasted in this assignment for nineteen months, as a prisoner, until April 10, 1865 when he was exchanged in Puerto Padre for a priest. He was transferred to La Habana Garrison, where he was re-assigned to duty on August 8 of the same year to a hospital in Baracoa. On September 14, he received the award by the Spanish Government given to all the faculty of the Military Sanitation Corps, that were held prisoners in the War of Santo Domingo, in other words, the Real Order of the Spanish Ministry of War, on June 22, 1865. For the purpose of dedicating more time to his profession, he resigned his position, and moved to Bayamo, where he was born. He remained in Bayamo, until October 1868, where he became very active in the Independence War of Cuba. He participated in this war for ten years, receiving two military honors awarded by the provisional government: Commandant, in 1870, retroactive to April 10, 1869; and Lieutenant Colonel, on March 3, 1878, retroactive to November 1, 1876. Because of his title and professional experience, he participated as a First Class Doctor of the Military Sanitation Corps.

When the war ended, he settled in Puerto Padre, and later moved to Bayamo and Manzanillo, dedicating again his time to his profession and to the autonomist politics, he holding the position of a Second Lieutenant Mayor for the town of Victoria de las Tunas (August 10, 1883); municipal Judge for a few years in Puerto Padre (July 18, 1886); Speaker of the Local Committee of the Liberal-Autonomist Party of Bayamo (February 28, 1887), Speaker of the Municipal Council for the Census of Bayamo (September 22, 1887), and Subdelegate of Pharmacy for the Judicial Party of Bayamo (February 18, 1888). In 1895, by virtue of an order given by Governor and General Captain of the Colony Emilio Calleja e Isasi, he was forced to emigrate to the Republic of Santo Domingo, and while preparing to take part in the expedition of de Leyte Vidal, returned to La Habana almost dead, and died on November 15, 1896.

Parish Register of the Parish of Guadalupe, Habana, Habana, Cuba

Marriages 1860 to 1891

The transcriptions from the Parish of Guadalupe, Habana, are of selected families that were being studied at the time by Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz and his associates. The extractions cover the years 1860 to 1895 included in Volume 10 to Volume 15 of marriages.

The list has been put in chronological order to make it easier to use.

The information contained in the following listing has the same format as previously used. To recap: The surname and given name are found first, followed by the sex of the individual, the date of the marriage, a letter indicating whether the individual listed is the one being married (M), or is associated genealogically (G); this G follows the names of parents or other spouses and witnesses, if any. The numbers at the very end refer to the page and entry number of the original transcription. These are helpful in looking at the individuals identified in a given entry and may also be used for further reference in corresponding with CGS to get a printout of the entry as it appears in the original transcription.

SOCIETY NOTES:

I am seeking information on my ancestors:

Don Vicente Fernández y Barreto, (bca. 1850), born in Canary Islands, and married Vicenta Torres y Hernández, (bca 1850) from Quivican, Habana, Cuba. Their child was Pedro Fernández y Torres, born in Guamutas Matanzas, Cuba.

Pedro married Juana Fernández y Morera, born in Villa de Mazo, San Germán, Canary Islands. She was the daughter of Antonio Fernández y Pérez and María Morera y Pérez. Pedro and Juana's child was José Vicente Fernández, (b 31 Oct 1890) in Sagua la Grande, Santa Clara, Cuba.

José married Soyla Pastora Gilbert y Quijano, on 28 Jul 1919. Soyla was born 27 Apr 1901 in Corralillo, Santa Clara, Cuba. José and Soyla immigrated to the US ca. 1929 and settled in San Francisco, California. They had two children in Holguín, Oriente, Cuba: Asia María Fernández, b. 14 Feb 1920 and Hector William Fernández b. 28 Mar 1823, who is my father.

If you have any information on any of the above lines, please contact Mike Fernández, Cummings E.S. PSC-76 Box 4923, APO Ap 96319-4923 (US mail rate).
